

Privacy Policy

When contacting you and/or while processing your incoming request for quotation, the system will only collect personal information you voluntarily submit and the recording, processing and use of which data you expressly consent to for the above purposes.

If you provide personal data to E-Toll Services Hungary Kft., we guarantee not to use them for illegal purposes, share with or forward to third parties. We do not disclose your data to third parties without your consent unless required by law, authorities or court.

E-Toll Services Hungary Kft. will remove collected information from the database if the conditions of legal or other purpose storage no longer exist. Naturally, we remove your collected personal data from our records upon your request. Also, you may withdraw your consent to further use or process your personal data any time.